Welcome Message

Dear Colleagues,

It gives me prodigious pleasure to welcome you all to “ONYCHOCON 2017”, the 6th Annual Conference of The Nail Society of India (NSI) at Amritsar. Nail disorders are one of the most challenging aspects of dermatology and our aim will be to provide great learning experience about the management of Nail disorders. Eminent speakers will share their vast personal clinical experiences and enlighten us on different aspects in management of various nail disorders.

The culture of Punjab has its own unique fragrance. The scent of this fertile land is such in which the warmth of belongingness is inborn. Amritsar, a traditional vibrant city, is known for its rich history and hospitality. The city of Amritsar is a dazzling showcase of composite culture and secular heritage. The holy city is well known for the Golden Temple which is a serene presence, radiating a calm that makes people bow their heads in reverence. Other sites to be visited for memorable experience are Jallianwala Bagh, Indo-Pakistan border at Wagah, just a short distance from Amritsar. On behalf of organising committee, we cordially invite you to attend ONYCHOCON 2017 and help us in making this event grand success.

Introduction

Amritsar, literally a Pool of Nectar, derives its name from Amrit Sarovar, the holy tank that surrounds the fabulous Golden Temple. Amritsar is the heart-beat of the Majha region which has provided Punjabi literature with its standard language. Amritsar is like a diamond with many facets. A rich repository of spiritual and national heritage, it has been hailed as the home of all virtues' (sifti da ghar) .

The essential spirit of the city is found not only in its gurudwaras & temples, mosques & churches, takias & khankahs but also in its theatres & galleries, parks & gardens, archives & libraries, art & architecture, museums & memorials, havelis & forts, fairs & festivals, vibrant folk dances & scintillating taans, narrow lanes & winding alleys, parlours & boutiques, clubs & pubs, traditional bustling markets & lip-smacking cuisine.

The most dominating asset, however, is its people who are friendly, God-fearing, hospitable, hard working, informal, robust and with a tremendous zest for living. They are fond of good food, good dress and all the external symbols of life.

PLACES OF INTEREST

Jallianwala Bagh, site of the gruesome massacre of unarmed Indians by British troops is the major tourist sight.

Another tourist attraction these days is the Indo-Pakistan border crossing at Wagah, just a short distance from Amritsar, with its elaborate change-of-guards drill with a lot of strutting and intimidatory showing off by both sides.

Others sites include Sri Ram Tirath, Rambagh gardens, Gobindgarh fort, wetland and Gurudwara Nanaksar, Harike.

Amritsar is a born host, and is famous for having a palate for eating. The city is famous for its culinary delicacies like multi-layered prathas, tandoori kulchas, puris, fried fish, seekh kabab, barbecued chicken and spicy pickles.

At just distance of 200 kms is Dharamshala which is full of scenic as well as cultural delights. The 3-hour trek to Triund is the best thing to do in Dharamshala as it provides some spectacular views even before one reaches the top. All of these make Amritsar a place to visit at least once in a person's life.
